I hear leaves drinking rain;

I hear rich leaves on top

Giving the poor beneath

Drop after drop;

'Tis a sweet noise to hear

These green leaves drinking near.

Ans Reference to the Context:

The above lines have been taken from the poem "Rain", by W.H. Davies. He generally writes about nature. The poem has a symbolic meaning. He likes to see equality among masses. He hopes to see parity and equality among people. The poem starts with this stanza.

Explanation:

The poet tells that it is raining. He hears leaves of the plants as if they are drinking the drops of the rain to quench their thirst. The upper leaves transfer the drops to the lower leaves drop by drop. The noise of the drops on green leaves is simply sweet. The leaves seem to suck the raindrops.
